Compliance Reporting

TSINY is committed to conducting its operations with honesty and integrity.

The agency expects all individuals to comply with applicable laws and regulations. As such, it is the responsibility of all TSINY employees to report suspected fraud, abuse or other improper activity relating to the operation of TSINY, whether committed by TSINY employees, vendors, clients, or others.

If you believe someone has committed an act of fraud and/or abuse related to any part of services provided in our programs you are obligated to report.

Individuals are protected from retaliation for making good faith reports of suspected fraud, abuse, or improper conduct. If the reporter makes his/her identity known, the Compliance Department will make all reasonable efforts to protect his/her identity, except if disclosure is necessary to investigate the issue. Reports should be made to the Compliance Department and may be made anonymously.
